JVS Tax Levy Passed By Three County Vote

The 1.7 mill operating levy, funds needed to open a Pickaway - Ross County Joint Vocational School, met with three-county voter approval Tuesday in a special election to match it with the .6 mill bond issue passed Nov. 2 for the JVS.

Total vote was 3,686-3585 for the tax levy. Pickaway County defeated the measure by about 600 votes. However, Ross County passed it by the same margin. Hocking County voters, mainly in the Laurelville area, reversed their vote of a month ago, and passed the levy by about 90 votes.

Combined totals show that the tax levy was passed by a 101 vote margin.

Tuesday's revote was granted after voters defeated the measure in November by a close 9,882 - 9,816 negative vote.

PRIME reason for a revote was passage of the bond issue in November. Both issues had to receive voter approval before plans for the school's construction could have been initiated.

Pickaway County again turned a cold shoulder to the issue, defeating it soundly in all but a few county precincts.

All totals are still unofficial, however, pending recount and verification by Board of Election officials.

In Pickaway County, the levy was defeated 1,518 to 971.

The city of Circleville apparently echoed county feelings on the levy, defeating it 552 - 464. Only the first ward, the entire north side of Circleville, combined to pass the tax levy 339 to 292. Other three city wards defeated the measure.

Second ward went 92-36 against, third ward went 64 - 29 against and fourth ward went 104-66 against.

IN combined township voting, Circleville and Washington Townships passed the levy. It failed in all other townships and villages.

Circleville Twp. voted in favor of the levy 82-59 and Washington Twp. was 84-76 for the measure. Other villages and townships in the county cast negative votes as follows: Darby Twp. (combined), 105-21; Deer Creek Twp., 57-29; Jackson Twp. (combined), 90-32; Monroe Twp. (combined), 114-13; Perry Twp., 60-11; Pickaway Twp. (combined), 118-70; Salter Creek Twp. (combined), 82-78; Wayne Twp., 44-23; Williamsport, 109-32; Darbyville - Muhlenberg, 24-14.

Hocking County voters reversed their Nov. decision by voting in favor of the operating levy, 156 to 66. In the November election they showed 422 to 395 against the proposed tax.

Ross County voters made up the 600 votes deficit of Pickaway Countians by passing the issue 2544 to 1997. They had previously supported the levy 6818 to 5991.

Less than a fourth of the Pickaway County voters who turned out in November were at the polls Tuesday.

Only 2,508 ballots were marked in the county compared to 10,719 in the general election.

Big Quake Hits Siberia

PALMER, Alaska (AP) — An earthquake measuring 7.8 on the Richter scale was recorded Tuesday night off the east coast of Siberia's Kamchatka Peninsula, the Palmer Observatory reported.

The observatory issued a seismic sea wave watch for Alaska's Aleutian Island chain, about 800 miles east of Kamchatka, and the National Weather Service in the Hawaiian Islands alerted its stations to watch for signs of a sea wave.

But a spokesman at Palmer said "At this time we really don't think there will be a Pacific sea wave." He said the quake was centered about 1,700 miles west of Anchorage and was not felt in Alaska.

Japan's Meteorological Agency also issued a wave warning for Northern Japan's Pacific coast. Seismographic instruments in Washington located the epicenter of the quake on Kamchatka, where a smaller tremor registered 7.3 on the scale Nov. 24.

But Japan's meteorological agency located the focus near the Komandorskie Islands, about 150 miles east of Kamchatka.

A spokesman at the center in Washington said the quake was not connected with the U.S. underground nuclear blast on Amchitka Island in the Aleutians last Nov. 6. Environmentalists had fought that test arguing that the explosion, among other things, could cause earthquakes and a tsunami, or seismic wave.

The center of the quake is in a relatively unpopulated part of what the Washington center called a highly seismic area.

"The main danger," the spokesman said, "would be from a tsunami, and this quake would be large enough to cause one. It's on the borderline."

Welfare Bill Slaps Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has handed President Nixon a political dilemma by passing the sterner half of his carrot-and-stick welfare-reform plan and perhaps jeopardizing passage of the richer portion he wanted along with it.

The action left Nixon with the choice of signing the bill and angering liberals, or vetoing it and angering Southern conservatives.

The dilemma was produced Tuesday when the House and Senate passed a measure requiring able-bodied welfare recipients to take jobs or sign up for job training.

To reduce the number who might seek exemption from the rule, the bill also would make more federal money available for such services as day care for children.

And to increase the work available at a time of high unemployment, the bill would authorize funds for public-service jobs.

The bill, approved by voice vote in both houses closely parallels provisions of one section of the administration's welfare-reform bill, stalled in the Senate Finance Committee.

The proposal approved Tuesday was attached as a rider to a minor bill by Sen. Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga., a Finance Committee member.

Finance Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., has strongly opposed the other half of the Nixon plan which would guarantee a minimum annual income of $2,400 for a family of four and would allow welfare recipients to increase their earnings without decreasing their public assistance by the same amount.

Hosea Williams Asks Meeting With Nixon

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A civil rights leader and his wife who visited Communist China last summer have requested a meeting with President Nixon. Hosea Williams, program coordinator of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference said in a telegram to Nixon:

"Due to our findings during a four-week visit to the Peoples Republic of China, including a meeting with Premier Chou En-lai, and a 21-day investigation of Vietnam, Mrs. Williams and I urgently request an audience prior to your Chinese visit.

8 Per Cent Cheaper Dollar To End Monetary Crisis

Alaska Land Bill Passes House, Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is expected to sign into law a bill to give Alaska natives $962.5 million and 40 million acres in settlement of their aboriginal land claims.

The bill, sent to the White House by Congress Tuesday, is a compromise worked out by a Senate-House conference committee, and is almost as liberal as one proposed by the administration.

The administration had recommended $1 billion and 40 million acres to settle the claims of the 55,000 Eskimos, Aleuts and Indians.

The claims to most of the vast Alaska land mass are based on ancestral use and occupancy and have been recognized since the U.S. purchased Alaska from Russia for $7.2 million in 1867.

The conference report, a compromise of bills passed earlier by the Senate and the House, sailed through the House, 307 to 60, and passed the Senate quickly by voice vote.

This climaxed 20 years of consideration by congressional committees of land-claim-settlement proposals. They began with a few million dollars and a few million acres, but increased sharply after discovery of oil in Alaska.

The compromise calls for federal appropriations totaling $462.5 million in 11 years and $500 million in royalties on mineral production in Alaska public lands. The latter otherwise would go to the state.

Most of the 40 million acres would be used for expansion of native villages in Alaska.

The money and land selections would be handled by native corporations. Funds would be used for grants, loans, schools, hospitals, investments and projects to benefit the natives.

The bill also calls for a joint federal-state land-planning study and the reservation of up to 80 million acres of Alaska land for possible inclusion in national park, forest, wildlife refuge and scenic river systems.

Group Supports Sen. Kennedy For President

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A drive started in Warren to draft U.S. Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., to run for president next year has spread to Kent State and Youngstown State universities.

The Draft Kennedy Campaign is headed by John Chiarella Jr., 20, who has completed one year of his political science studies at Youngstown State. He is working in a grocery store here to earn money to return to the university.

He said the goal of his committee is "to obtain thousands of signatures on petitions supporting the candidacy of Sen. Kennedy for President."

"The petitions will be sent to Sen. Kennedy encouraging him to run for the presidency in 1972 and also to Gov. John Gilligan and Ohio delegates to the Democratic convention next year," Chiarella added.

Nixon Tying Trip To Russia To India - Pakistan War?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is playing with big diplomatic chips in seeking to link President Nixon's Moscow-trip plans to the Soviet stand in the India-Pakistan war.

The latest word is that if the Soviet Union does not act quickly to restrain the conflict, Nixon might reassess the wisdom of a recent agreement for him to visit Moscow late next May. There were hints that Moscow's future actions regarding the war might lead to reappraisal of the entire U.S.-Soviet relationship.

Such intelligence was made known Tuesday on condition the source not be identified. But The Washington Post reported in today's editions that the apparent White House warning to Moscow came in a background briefing by presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger.

The Post said Kissinger briefed five pool newsmen who accompanied Nixon to the Azores for two days of talks with French President Georges Pompidou. The Post said it was not part of the pool and learned of the briefing independently.

At the White House, presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Tuesday night: "No U.S. official was suggesting or intending to suggest that the United States was considering canceling the United States-Soviet summit. That report is not correct."

An administration spokesman, who would not be named,

noted that the Soviets three times in recent days vetoed United Nations Security Council resolutions calling for an Indian-Pakistani cease-fire.

He suggested the Soviet Union may have been trying to prove to the world that mainland China, to be visited by Nixon in February, is powerless to prevent the virtual collapse of Pakistani forces in the Eastern sector of their country.

The White House has gone out of its way to express strong displeasure at the Soviet vetoes of Security Council actions aimed at ending the South Asian conflict.

Freed American Captives To Undergo Medical Tests

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rested and nourished on such typical American fare as hamburgers, French fries and steak, Mary Ann Harbert and Richard G. Fecteau face a series of medical tests today to determine the effects of captivity in Communist China.

The examinations had been scheduled to begin Tuesday at the Valley Forge Medical Center and Hospital, 20 miles northwest of here.

Doctors delayed the examinations to allow Miss Harbert, of Palo Alto, Calif., and Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., to rest from a 10,000-mile trip that began in Hong Kong after their release Monday.

Both Miss Harbert, 25, a Chinese prisoner for three years, and Fecteau, 43, who spent 19 years in a Communist prison, much of it in solitary confinement, said they were feeling well.

Doctors said the two were tired but appeared to be "in very good physical condition," although Fecteau's ordeal left him withdrawn and cautious.

Newsmen were not allowed to interview the pair Tuesday. A State Department representative said the matter was entirely up to Fecteau and Miss Harbert and he was merely following their wishes.

Their first meal on the U.S. mainland consisted of hamburgers, French fries, cherry pie and coffee, thanks to a hospital dietician who didn't have the heart to serve them scheduled fare.

Jacqueline Onassis Was Social Worker

NEW YORK (AP) — A spokesman for a shelter for slum children in Harlem says Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis worked with children there for one day a week during the spring and summer months.

The McMahon Memorial Temporary Shelter spokesman said Monday that the former first lady had asked that her work at the shelter be kept confidential.

Would Make U.S. Goods Competitive

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has agreed to devalue the dollar for the first time since 1934, a move that could bring a speedy settlement to the simmering international monetary crisis, perhaps before Christmas.

The agreement, reached Tuesday in a nine-hour meeting with French President Georges Pompidou in the Azores, stripped away a major obstacle to settlement of worldwide monetary disruptions.

No percentage devaluation was mentioned in the Nixon-Pompidou communique, nor was the method of devaluation. But a high administration official said an 8-per-cent devaluation was "about the highest figure mentioned" and was "very much in the ballpark."

Should devaluation be accomplished by congressional action raising the price of gold, an 8-per-cent change would result in a gold price of $37.80 an ounce.

The official price of gold has held at $35 an ounce since the United States stopped redeeming paper money for gold in 1934.

In simple terms, devaluation would make U.S. products more competitive in foreign markets and imported products more expensive in the United States.

Treasury Secretary John B. Connally said in an NBC interview Tuesday night: "I don't think the average American will ever really be conscious of it . . . The average American probably will not know it."

The formal communique was released as finance ministers and central bankers of the 10

Gilligan Says No Increased Tax Planned

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan said Tuesday he planned no new tax increases following passage of a state income tax, but added he would not make the assurance "a pledge."

Gilligan told a news conference, "What would I do if a court said school funds based on real estate taxes were unconstitutional?" He indicated an increase in income taxes might be necessary in such a situation.

The governor said he would oppose any attempt to pass a constitutional amendment requiring a vote of the people to increase the taxes provided in the bill.

He said he felt any increase would be the job of the legislature. "I don't see how anything could be accomplished by putting ourselves in a constitutional strait jacket," he added.

Gilligan said he was "perfectly willing" to accept any hostility that voters might feel toward the tax.

State Sends Out Tax Tables To Employers

By PERRY SMITH Associated Press Writer COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Taxation began mailing withholding instructions and tables to Ohio employers today as it geared for Jan. 1 collection of the state personal income tax.

Tax Commissioner Robert Kosydar said the initial 4,000 forms and tables would go out to the state's largest employers, accounting for 80 per cent of all employee withholdings.

The remainder of the 400,000 forms, he said, would be in the mail by Monday. The personal income tax is .5 to 3.5 per cent.

Forms for the 4 to 8 per cent corporation tax will go into the mail early in January, he added. Registration cards for employers to return will be included with both tables.

The 10 per cent property tax rollback provided in the bill will apply to all owners of real estate, including giant utility firms.

Finance Director Harold Hovey ridiculed the suggestion of some critics that the rollback could be waived in districts in default on bonded indebtedness.

Hovey said a section indicating that could happen was put into the bill to satisfy bondholders and keep interest rates low.

"From a practical viewpoint," he said, "it could never happen because the bill requires the state to make up any such deficit. Besides, no local government is in default on its debt."

The Ohio Municipal League did not oppose the state entering the income tax field, but has predicted it could hurt attempts by cities to get vote approval for increases in their own income taxes.

John Coleman, league executive director, said cities may be frozen where they are. "The impact is going to come when they go to raise the rates," Coleman said.

City councils, Coleman noted, can raise city income taxes up to one per cent without a vote, but with a state income tax, he said, will increase chances of any such boosts being put to a vote.

Cities had asked to be plugged into a state tax but all they got from the legislature, Coleman said, was $19 million in additional money to be distributed proportionately to local governments.

Judge Rules In Favor Of Adoption

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A court ruling Tuesday was an early Christmas present for a 3-year-old girl and the only parents she has known.

Probate Court Judge Francis Talty ruled that it was in the best interests of Julie Sheila that she remain with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haun of Olmsted Township. He said he would issue a final adoption decree.

"The whole family is on cloud nine," Mrs. Haun said after the ruling. "It was an excellent Christmas present, not only for this year, but for the years to come."

Julie was placed in the Hauns' home by the Children's Services Agency when she was a 15-day-old, prematurely-born brain-damaged baby. Doctors say she is now developing normally.

At a hearing Oct. 21, the agency said the Hauns had given the child excellent care, but objected to them adopting her because of their ages.

Haun, 68, retired three years ago as a railroad gatekeeper at Union Terminal. His wife is 55. In his ruling Tuesday Judge Talty held the agency's objections cannot override the court's responsibility for a child's welfare.

The Hauns have cared for 34 foster children for the agency over the last 20 years, but Julie was the last one they had. They have three married children of their own and an adopted 17-year-old daughter.

8 Per Cent Cheaper Dollar To End Monetary Crisis

Alaska Land Bill Passes House, Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon is expected to sign into law a bill to give Alaska natives $962.5 million and 40 million acres in settlement of their aboriginal land claims.

The bill, sent to the White House by Congress Tuesday, is a compromise worked out by a Senate-House conference committee, and is almost as liberal as one proposed by the administration.

The administration had recommended $1 billion and 40 million acres to settle the claims of the 55,000 Eskimos, Aleuts and Indians.

The claims to most of the vast Alaska land mass are based on ancestral use and occupancy and have been recognized since the U.S. purchased Alaska from Russia for $7.2 million in 1867.

The conference report, a compromise of bills passed earlier by the Senate and the House, sailed through the House, 307 to 60, and passed the Senate quickly by voice vote.

This climaxed 20 years of consideration by congressional committees of land-claim-settlement proposals. They began with a few million dollars and a few million acres, but increased sharply after discovery of oil in Alaska.

The compromise calls for federal appropriations totaling $462.5 million in 11 years and $500 million in royalties on mineral production in Alaska public lands. The latter otherwise would go to the state.

Most of the 40 million acres would be used for expansion of native villages in Alaska.

The money and land selections would be handled by native corporations. Funds would be used for grants, loans, schools, hospitals, investments and projects to benefit the natives.

The bill also calls for a joint federal-state land-planning study and the reservation of up to 80 million acres of Alaska land for possible inclusion in national park, forest, wildlife refuge and scenic river systems.

Nixon Tying Trip To Russia To India - Pakistan War?

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House is playing with big diplomatic chips in seeking to link President Nixon's Moscow trip plans to the Soviet stand in the India-Pakistan war.

The latest word is that if the Soviet Union does not act quickly to restrain the conflict, Nixon might reassess the wisdom of a recent agreement for him to visit Moscow late next May. There were hints that Moscow's future actions regarding the war might lead to reappraisal of the entire U.S.-Soviet relationship.

Such intelligence was made known Tuesday on condition the source not be identified. But The Washington Post reported in today's editions that the apparent White House warning to Moscow came in a background briefing by presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger.

The Post said Kissinger briefed five pool newsmen who accompanied Nixon to the Azores for two days of talks with French President Georges Pompidou. The Post said it was not part of the pool and learned of the briefing independently.

At the White House, presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Tuesday night: "No U.S. official was suggesting or intending to suggest that the United States was considering canceling the United States-Soviet summit. That report is not correct."

An administration spokesman, who would not be named,

noted that the Soviets three times in recent days vetoed United Nations Security Council resolutions calling for an Indian-Pakistani cease-fire.

He suggested the Soviet Union may have been trying to prove to the world that mainland China, to be visited by Nixon in February, is powerless to prevent the virtual collapse of Pakistani forces in the Eastern sector of their country.

The White House has gone out of its way to express strong displeasure at the Soviet vetoes of Security Council actions aimed at ending the South Asian conflict.

Freed American Captives To Undergo Medical Tests

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rested and nourished on such typical American fare as hamburgers, French fries and steak, Mary Ann Harbert and Richard G. Fecteau face a series of medical tests today to determine the effects of captivity in Communist China.

The examinations had been scheduled to begin Tuesday at the Valley Forge Medical Center and Hospital, 20 miles northwest of here.

Doctors delayed the examinations to allow Miss Harbert, of Palo Alto, Calif., and Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., to rest from a 10,000-mile trip that began in Hong Kong after their release Monday.

Both Miss Harbert, 25, a Chinese prisoner for three years, and Fecteau, 43, who spent 19 years in a Communist prison, much of it in solitary confinement, said they were feeling well.

Doctors said the two were tired but appeared to be "in very good physical condition," although Fecteau's ordeal left him withdrawn and cautious.

Newsman were not allowed to interview the pair Tuesday. A State Department representative said the matter was entirely up to Fecteau and Miss Harbert and he was merely following their wishes.

Maj. Allen Yanoff, a staff physician at the hospital, said the evaluation of their condition was incomplete. He declined to speculate when they might be released.

Their first meal on the U.S. mainland consisted of hamburgers, French fries, cherry pie and coffee, thanks to a hospital dietician who didn't have the heart to serve them scheduled fare.

Would Make U.S. Goods Competitive

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon has agreed to devalue the dollar for the first time since 1934, a move that could bring a speedy settlement to the simmering international monetary crisis, perhaps before Christmas.

The agreement, reached Tuesday in a nine-hour meeting with French President Georges Pompidou in the Azores, stripped away a major obstacle to settlement of worldwide monetary disruptions.

No percentage devaluation was mentioned in the Nixon-Pompidou communique, nor was the method of devaluation. But a high administration official said an 8-per-cent devaluation was "about the highest figure mentioned" and was "very much in the ballpark."

Should devaluation be accomplished by congressional action raising the price of gold, an 8-per-cent change would result in a gold price of $37.80 an ounce.

The official price of gold has held at $35 an ounce since the United States stopped redeeming paper money for gold in 1934.

In simple terms, devaluation would make U.S. products more competitive in foreign markets and imported products more expensive in the United States.

Treasury Secretary John B. Connally said in an NBC interview Tuesday night: "I don't think the average American will ever really be conscious of it . . . The average American probably will not know it."

The formal communication was released as finance ministers and central bankers of the 10

Pakistani General Asks Truce

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pakistani commander in East Pakistan has appealed to the Indian army chief of staff for a cease-fire, the government in New Delhi announced today. India ordered a halt to the bombing of Dacca and gave the Pakistanis 16 hours to surrender.

Gen. Sam Manekshaw, the Indian chief of staff, replied that he would order a cease-fire as soon as the Pakistanis confirmed their surrender, an Indian spokesman said. The appeal was from Lt. Gen. A. A. K. Niazi, who previously had vowed to fight to the last man.

The exchange between the two generals came as an Indian army spokesman reported Indian troops fired mortars into Dacca from less than two miles away and the battle for the East Pakistani capital "is in its final stages."

Indian troops also were reported within four miles of Chittagong, East Pakistan's largest port. Its harbor area was hit Tuesday by an air and sea bombardment.

Manekshaw warned that "if you do not comply with what I have stated you will leave me with no other alternative but to resume my offensive with the utmost vigor at 0900 Dec. 16."

This is 10:30 p.m., EST, today. Manekshaw told Niazi he had ordered the bombing pause at Dacca as a "token of my good faith."

The Indian army chief made clear a surrender would be required before India would agree to a cease-fire.

Radio Pakistan conceded that Indian troops were putting pressure on Dacca after opening up with an artillery shelling Tuesday.

The Army spokesman in Calcutta told newsmen Dacca is surrounded and leading elements of Indian columns, advancing from the northwest, north and south, have opened up with mortars on the city from 3,000 to 6,000 yards.

The spokesman said waterways east of the city have been crossed and no further waterways remain between Indian forces and Dacca.

A doctor in a Dacca hospital said the wounded Pakistani soldiers being brought in were "more than we can deal with."

An Indian spokesman in New Delhi said Indian advance units were six miles from Dacca and that all three attacking columns were within artillery range of the provincial capital. India's heaviest artillery has a range of slightly more than 15 miles.

As the Indian forces closed on the city, A.M. Malik, East Pakistan's governor, and his council of ministers resigned and took their families to sanctuary with the Red Cross at the Hotel Intercontinental.

Jack Foile of the Los Angeles Times and Dan Coggon of Time magazine reached the front-line fighting Tuesday at Demra, on the Lakhya River seven miles southeast of Dacca, and reported a Pakistani rear-guard unit retreated across the river under fire as Indian and rebel East Pakistani forces entered a village on the west bank.

High-level U.S. officials indicated that firm agreement on currency revaluation will result in dropping the 10-per-cent surcharge the United States levied on imports Aug. 15.

The high administration official said the accord with Pompidou envisions a settlement along these lines:

—The value of the French franc would remain the same.

—West Germany would be expected to revalue its mark upward and an even greater upward revaluation of the Japanese yen would be expected.

—Exchange rates of major currencies would be allowed to fluctuate over a broader range than the present 1 per cent up or down. This, said the administration official, represented a major concession by the French.

The communiqué said France and other Common Market countries would move to start negotiations with the United States to settle "short-term problems currently pending."

The U.S. official said the short-term problems referred mainly to trade matters, although he would not get specific. The United States has long complained about trade barriers erected by the Common Market against U.S. goods.

Reaction on Capitol Hill to the Nixon announcement was favorable. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Hugh Scott said a modest devaluation would be a good thing.

Motorist Stops To Give Aid; Is Injured

David F. Ball, 24, Zanesville, was seriously injured early this morning when he stopped his car on Interstate 70 to assist a trucker who had an accident.

The Circleville Ohio Highway Patrol Post reported that Ball's right leg was severed just above the ankle.

Ball had stopped to lend assistance to Robert Bigley, 31, Elyria, who had lost control of his tractor-trailer rig. The truck outfit had gone off the left side of the road into the median and had flipped over onto its side with the trailer in the passing lane of traffic.

William P. Locke, 53, Columbus, hit the rear of the trailer, skidded right, struck Ball and then the guard rail and continued on another 140 feet striking another truck outfit driven by Ralph W. Teeter, 32, Elyria. Teeter had also stopped to assist Bigley.

Pakistani General Asks Truce

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pakistani commander in East Pakistan has appealed to the Indian army chief of staff for a cease-fire, the government in New Delhi announced today. India ordered a halt to the bombing of Dacca and gave the Pakistanis 16 hours to surrender.

Gen. Sam Manekshaw, the Indian chief of staff, replied that he would order a cease-fire as soon as the Pakistanis confirmed their surrender, an Indian spokesman said. The appeal was from Lt. Gen. A. A. K. Niazi, who previously had vowed to fight to the last man.

The exchange between the two generals came as an Indian army spokesman reported Indian troops fired mortars into Dacca from less than two miles away and the battle for the East Pakistani capital "is in its final stages."

Indian troops also were reported within four miles of Chittagong, East Pakistan's largest port. Its harbor area was hit Tuesday by an air and sea bombardment.

Manekshaw warned that "if you do not comply with what I have stated you will leave me with no other alternative but to resume my offensive with the utmost vigor at 0900 Dec. 16."

This is 10:30 p.m., EST, today. Manekshaw told Niazi he had ordered the bombing pause at Dacca as a "token of my good faith."

The Indian army chief made clear a surrender would be required before India would agree to a cease-fire.

Radio Pakistan conceded that Indian troops were putting pressure on Dacca after opening up with an artillery shelling Tuesday.

The Army spokesman in Calcutta told newsmen Dacca is surrounded and leading elements of Indian columns, advancing from the northwest, north and south, have opened up with mortars on the city from 3,000 to 6,000 yards.

The spokesman said waterways east of the city have been crossed and no further waterways remain between Indian forces and Dacca.

A doctor in a Dacca hospital said the wounded Pakistani soldiers being brought in were "more than we can deal with."

An Indian spokesman in New Delhi said Indian advance units were six miles from Dacca and that all three attacking columns were within artillery range of the provincial capital. India's heaviest artillery has a range of slightly more than 15 miles.

As the Indian forces closed on the city, A.M. Malik, East Pakistan's governor, and his council of ministers resigned and took their families to sanctuary with the Red Cross at the Hotel Intercontinental.

Jack Foile of the Los Angeles Times and Dan Coggon of Time magazine reached the front-line fighting Tuesday at Demra, on the Lakhya River seven miles southeast of Dacca, and reported a Pakistani rear-guard unit retreated across the river under fire as Indian and rebel East Pakistani forces entered a village on the west bank.

Would Make

richest non-Communist nations prepared to gather in Washington Friday and Saturday to discuss solving worldwide monetary disorders.

High-level U.S. officials indicated that firm agreement on currency revaluation will result in dropping the 10-per-cent surcharge the United States levied on imports Aug. 15.

The high administration official said the accord with Pompidou envisions a settlement along these lines:

—The value of the French franc would remain the same.

—West Germany would be expected to revalue its mark upward and an even greater upward revaluation of the Japanese yen would be expected.

—Exchange rates of major currencies would be allowed to fluctuate over a broader range than the present 1 per cent up or down. This, said the administration official, represented a major concession by the French.

The communiqué said France and other Common Market countries would move to start negotiations with the United States to settle "short-term problems currently pending."

The U.S. official said the short-term problems referred mainly to trade matters, although he would not get specific. The United States has long complained about trade barriers erected by the Common Market against U.S. goods.

Reaction on Capitol Hill to the Nixon announcement was favorable. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Hugh Scott said a modest devaluation would be a good thing.

Motorist Stops To Give Aid; Is Injured

David F. Ball, 24, Zanesville, was seriously injured early this morning when he stopped his car on Interstate 270 just west of Interstate 71 to assist a trucker who had an accident.

The Circleville Ohio Highway Patrol Post reported that Ball's right leg was severed just above the ankle.

Ball had stopped to lend assistance to Robert Bigley, 31, Elyria, who had lost control of his tractor-trailer rig. The truck outfit had gone off the left side of the road into the median and had flipped over onto its side with the trailer in the passing lane of traffic.

William P. Locke, 53, Columbus, hit the rear of the trailer, skidded right, struck Ball and then the guard rail and continued on another 140 feet striking another truck outfit driven by Ralph W. Teeter, 32, Elyria. Teeter had also stopped to assist Bigley.

Boosters To Meet

The Circleville High School Booster Club will meet 8 p.m. tonight in the high school cafeteria. Films will be shown.

Youth Slain In Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — A British patrol shot and killed a 16-year-old boy early today after the youth aimed a gun at it, British army headquarters reported.

A spokesman said Martin McShane was climbing a fence into a playing field at Coalisland, in County Tyrone, when the soldiers spotted him.

He said the boy saw the soldiers, aimed at them, and the troops opened fire.

About 40 angry people surrounded the body in the early morning darkness and refused to let the soldiers near it. They called an ambulance which took the body away, the spokesman said.

Red Tape Specialists

The idea of cutting red tape so citizens can more effectively deal with their government is a good one. But the method chosen by the Urban Affairs subcommittee of the Joint House-Senate Economic Committee to accomplish this end could be a two-edged sword.

Members of the panel were in total agreement throughout discussions that there was a need for some mechanism to reach the "morass of bureaus and agencies." And to cut through the "endless series of paper shuffling" encountered in grassroots dealings with Washington.

That was as far as unanimity went, however. The panel was sharply divided on a recommended proposal to provide elected "public intervenors" for each 5,000 to 10,000-person segment of the population.

The prospect of creating as many as 40,000 pseudo-ombudsmen was described by Rep. Martha Griffiths, a panel member, as "wholly impractical."

Similarly, another recommendation to create 10 "regional czars" to acquaint the President with community problems was made amidst much opposition.

Perhaps creating another governmental layer is the only way of cutting through federal red tape. If so, members of Congress, who are supposed to act as the public's conduit for public affairs, are not doing their jobs.

Now Policy Test

It may be a little late in the game for the United States to be cutting off military shipments to India and Pakistan. Both South Asian countries have sufficient military armaments and materiel to engage in a protracted struggle. Much of it was supplied from abroad.

Despite the continuing gravity of the situation, turning off the military pipeline from Washington does mark a break with tradition. The actual effect on military procurement for the two countries is minimal. The decision was more political than military.

Although India has been one of the largest recipients of aid of all types from the United States over the years, it has also been receiving armament shipments from Russia, France and Britain. The evolving American policy of humanitarian assistance but no military help has not been tested yet, as it might be should India undertake a fullscale invasion of Pakistan territory.

The new policy may not work. But neither did the old, which more often than not found the U.S. sitting between the two opposing camps, both bristling with guns stamped "made in the U.S.A."

Volunteers For Bureaucracy

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The delegates to the White House Conference on Aging had many a sad story to tell. Social Security and Medicare, however well intentioned, just don't pay the bills for many of the 20 million Americans in the "aged" category. So, inevitably, the liberals took up the refrain: the Nixon government, which has no intention of providing complete support for the elderly, was indulging in one more insincere bit of stalling. The conference, said the liberals, was window dressing.

Seeking to make partisan points, the liberal critics of the White House Conference skipped over the Nixon policy of trying to enlist volunteers in combined government citizen action programs that would solve problems without further debasement of our all-too-anemic dollar.

Specifically, the liberals ignored the existence of Joseph H. Blatchford, the ex-tennis star who had taken over at the Peace Corps after a career of organizing private, self-help projects in Venezuela and Brazil. Joe has been busy ever since last summer with the new Nixon agency called Action which combines the various volunteer organizations, both overseas and domestic, that had been scattered about in government departments.

Blatchford is an interesting contradiction: he hates bureaucracy, he believes in private action, yet he is willing to use government to give volunteers the needed direction. He feels sure he can do this without succumbing to the temptation to build his own self-perpetuating empire on the Potomac. He is just the man to head Action in a period of retrenchment.

Blatchford has ideas involving all sorts of people in volunteer activities that would supplement existing government spending programs. For one example, he has persuaded ten universities to give college sociology credits for undergraduate service in central city rehabilitation. One of his more successful Action agencies is called Score (Service Corps of Retired Executives). The White House Conference on Aging heard a lot about the activities of one particular Score volunteer named Don Hayden, who had persuaded the small businessmen of Chattanooga, Tenn., to set up a Senior Employment Service, with the secretarial expenses funded by the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and the office space provided by the local St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

When Mr. Hayden, a former R. H. Macy merchandising expert who retired a couple of years ago, started his Score work, he had on hand a Chattanooga survey proving that 70 per cent of 7,000 local residents on Social Security couldn't make ends meet. Within 14 months the retired businessmen working for Mr. Hayden's Senior Employment Service managed to find jobs for 118 elderly people who have been able to supplement their Social Security by earning up to the permissible limit of $140 a month. Eight of the senior citizens have gone so well that they have since gone off Social Security.

Robert Castor, who has been working for Blatchford in forming Score chapters, told the White House conference several stories that were comparable to Mr. Hayden's. The sad thing is that only small businesses can help people like Hayden along. Our big corporation, with their mandatory retirement policies, force many a good man to depend on his pension and Social Security. They can't suspend their own rules and hire Social Security recipients whose incomes may be inadequate to pay bills in an inflationary epoch.

The liberal critics of the White House Conference missed the whole lesson of Mr. Hayden's testimony. Elderly people are perfectly capable of working. If our big corporations would only change their thinking about retirement, and if the government would only let people keep earnings in excess of $140 a month and still draw their Social Security payments (after all, Social Security was originally sold as insurance), the problem of indigent old age would largely disappear.

The fault is in our brains. Joe Blatchford, who would like to work himself out of his job, can't do everything without better thinking in our big corporation board rooms and in our Congress.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Have you ever heard of a medical condition known as "devil's pinches"? Is it real or is my fiance kidding me when he says he has it.

Miss R. J., Ky. Dear Miss J.: "Devil's pinches" is a charming name for the tendency that some people have to bruise easily. In such people the slightest unusual pressure or injury to the skin seems to break a superficial blood vessel and black and blue marks appear.

Fair-haired people with translucent skin seem to have this harmless disorder. It is said to occur in members of the same family and therefore has some hereditary factor. Blood studies rarely show any abnormality in clotting capacity or make-up of the blood or blood cells.

The name "devil's pinches" originated because the injury that caused the black and blue mark was usually insignificant and not remembered. The devil, "as a punishment for transgressions," was therefore considered to be the culprit.

It is the female finance who usually is said to show the tell-tale marks of the devil's pinch.

How dangerous is an operation in a woman past the age of seventy?

Mrs. K. B., R.I. Dear Mrs. B.: I could not possibly deny that major surgery in the elderly does have a greater risk than in people who are younger. Yet modern day anesthetics and highly trained specialists in this field have markedly decreased the risks and hazards of surgery for the elderly.

Pre-operative preparation with antibiotics and other drugs have prevented many distressing complications that previously occurred to high risk patients.

Physicians and surgeons carefully evaluate each patient, the kind of surgery that is being contemplated, and the possible risks involved. You can be sure of a great safety factor if surgery has been recommended by your doctor.

How often should the blood pressure be taken? Mr. N.S.T., Utah Dear Mr. T.: Unless there is unusually high blood pressure which needs constant supervision, it is sufficient for the blood pressure to be taken only at the time of the yearly general examination.

Crime Rate Drops
BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Although Baltimore's crime rate has dropped by more than 15 per cent state police report the city still accounts for 40 per cent of Maryland's total crime.

NEW YORK (AP) — Did you ever wonder who pays the expenses of recalling a product found to be faulty? If you have, you've probably assumed it was an insurance company. But chances are it wasn't.

Large, financially strong companies so far have chosen to rely on self-insurance. Many smaller companies are badly exposed, with neither the insurance or the capability of surviving a recall.

Such companies are facing growing risks and maybe even bankruptcy as their products encounter government and customer vigilance against items considered to be health or safety hazards.

The federal Food and Drug Administration alone ordered the recall of more than 1,400 products last year, up more than 500 from a year earlier. The list included 365 foods, 927 drugs, 90 devices, and 44 cosmetics.

Despite this, only a tiny percentage of companies have bothered to buy recall insurance. In the entire country it is estimated that only about 200 companies have such coverage, despite its availability since 1966.

Industry officials claim the unpopularity of the insurance can't be traced to any reluctance to publicize on their part, but a random check of several companies revealed considerable ignorance of such policies.

Some manufacturers apparently believe their standard liability policies offer protection, which they do not. Such policies protect against claims of injury or damage but do not provide coverage for recalls.

Recall insurance pays the cost of notifying distributors and consumers to discontinue using a product as well as the actual withdrawal cost. Also included are costs of stationery, postage, telephone and telegraph, advertisements, employee overtime and outside hired help and the costs of unusual disposal problems, such as might be involved in disposing of an aerosol can.

To qualify for the insurance, which is available to practically any manufacturer, a company usually is required to present a plan of withdrawal, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Typically, a policy requires that the insured pay at least the first $1,000 in costs and then participate to some extent—10 per cent of 20 per cent—in expenses above that figure.

Because of the scanty experience with the insurance, rates so far are not standardized but depend heavily on the assessment of the individual applicants.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

In a recent five-year period the age at which the most U.S. girls were married rose from 18 years to 19. The age at which most men became bridegrooms stayed steady at 21.

Noise is known to cause irritability and sleeplessness, but can it affect your sex life adversely? Some Russian medical experts believe so. They attribute much sexual incompatibility to the effect of noise.

Most bosses are giving the cold shoulder now to girls who want to wear hot pants to the office—a problem which has been shelved temporarily now anyway by the advent of cold weather. A survey showed that 63 per cent of responding executives banned hot pants from their business premises. But the issue is so warm that only 403 out of 1,046 bosses questioned said anything other than "no comment."

Body Chart: The ancient Greeks believed that the sole function of the brain was to act as a kind of sponge in cooling the blood. Like so many people do today, they also thought that the emotion of love was located in the heart.

Note to stamp collectors: Many beginners injure or destroy their collections by laying the albums flat instead of standing them upright. The weight of the album can cause the glue on unused stamps to stick to the page.

Romantic pest: A kiss beneath a Christmas mistletoe can lead to lifelong loves. But to biologist this flowering parasite is a deadly pest which kills its host tree and causes the loss of $100 million worth of lumber yearly. The Romans, says the National Geographic Society, believed that a sprig of mistletoe assured safe passage across the River Styx into Hades. In Sweden chewing mistletoe was thought helpful for ulcer victims; in England it was also thought to be a cure for epilepsy.

A fashionable peril: Ladies' high boots are in high style at present, but they hold a danger. If worn too tight, doctors warn, they can cause the veins to swell and may even lead to the formation of blood clots in the lower leg. If the boot pinches, give it the boot.

Worth remembering: "You're an old-timer if you can remember when $150 was the down payment on a new car—not just the sales tax."

History lesson: Can you name which U.S. presidents bore the following nicknames: "American Fabius": "Hero of New Orleans"; "Preacher President," and "Prince Arthur"? They were George Washington, Andrew Jackson, James Garfield, and Chester A. Arthur.

Charging the County Board of Elections with "irregularities" in declaring Harold Beavers legally elected as trustee of Scioto Twp., Paul W. Beers, the other competitor for the post, appealed the decision to Common Pleas Court. Beers claimed there was a greater number of ballots voted than there were names appearing on the official poll list book for the precinct. The dispute between the candidates arose when each received an equal number of votes at the general election. Election board members pronounced Beavers elected by a coin toss.

Pickaway County's first case of diphtheria in two years appeared in New Holland, a 4-year-old the victim of a mild case of the disease.

Five Pickaway County schools pupils competed in the annual Prince of Peace Declaration contest at the Circleville Methodist Church. They were: Emma R. Bowers, Ashville; Bertha Painter, Commercial Point; Junior Stucky, Monroe Chapel; Eugene Hall, Emmett's Chapel and June Miller, Salem Church.

A fire, caused by static electricity, which apparently ignited gasoline as it flowed from one of the Circleville Oil Company's fuel storage tanks into a truck, destroyed three tank trucks, the company's garage and small service station, uncoupled gallons of gasoline and kerosene, two privately owned automobiles and plunged five cities into darkness as it melted the power lines serving Circleville, Hillsboro, Jackson, Chillicothe and Waverly. Young George Clifton and Fire Chief Talmer Wise were proclaimed heroes as they worked their way to the burning tanks to shut off the valves while firemen played two streams of water on them to keep their clothes from igniting.

Circleville's weather watcher reported balmy weather Dec. 5 as the mercury rose to 65 degrees and settled around 50 for the evening.

Ohio State football coach was guest speaker at the annual Kiwanis Club football banquet held at the Elk's home.

George Wellington, the all-around, fix-it-up man at Ashville, was repairing the former Messick homestead in the village recently purchased by Mrs. Beatrice Schiff. Interior work was also being done, promising to make the house one of the most modern around.

Joseph S. Smith, one of Circleville's most prominent retired men and believed to be the oldest Ohio Alumnus of Notre Dame University, died at his home at "Sunnyside," southeast of Circleville. Mr. Smith was 80. He was organizer of the J. S. Smith and Brothers Milling Co., later known as Ohio Cereal Co. before being sold to the Crites interests. In 1941, the Ralston-Purina plant stood on the site formerly occupied by Smith's mill.

All Circleville was shocked as the announcement was made that Congress had declared war against the Japanese following the Sunday bombing of Pearl Harbor. The day following the announcement of war, livestock and grain prices soared locally and farmers were beginning to fear for the shortage of help.

A group of ten boys, led by Ernie Elwood Stonerock, Route 2, were dispatched immediately to Fort Hayes. The Pickaway County board was asked to induct 204 youths for the war effort of the 2,953 registered military-aged citizens.

Have you ever heard of a medical condition known as "devil's pinches"? Is it real or is my fiance kidding me when he says he has it.

Miss R. J., Ky. Dear Miss J.: "Devil's pinches" is a charming name for the tendency that some people have to bruise easily. In such people the slightest unusual pressure or injury to the skin seems to break a superficial blood vessel and black and blue marks appear.

Fair-haired people with translucent skin seem to have this harmless disorder. It is said to occur in members of the same family and therefore has some hereditary factor. Blood studies rarely show any abnormality in clotting capacity or make-up of the blood or blood cells.

The name "devil's pinches" originated because the injury that caused the black and blue mark was usually insignificant and not remembered. The devil, "as a punishment for transgressions," was therefore considered to be the culprit.

It is the female finance who usually is said to show the telltale marks of the devil's pinch.

How dangerous is an operation in a woman past the age of seventy?

Mrs. K. B., R.I. Dear Mrs. B.: I could not possibly deny that major surgery in the elderly does have a greater risk than in people who are younger. Yet modern day anesthetics and highly trained specialists in this field have markedly decreased the risks and hazards of surgery for the elderly.

Pre-operative preparation with antibiotics and other drugs have prevented many distressing complications that previously occurred to high risk patients. Physicians and surgeons carefully evaluate each patient, the kind of surgery that is being contemplated, and the possible risks involved. You can be sure of a great safety factor if surgery has been recommended by your doctor.

How often should the blood pressure be taken?

Mr. N.S.T., Utah Dear Mr. T.: Unless there is unusually high blood pressure which needs constant supervision, it is sufficient for the blood pressure to be taken only at the time of the yearly general examination.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Did you ever wonder who pays the expenses of recalling a product found to be faulty? If you have, you've probably assumed it was an insurance company. But chances are it wasn't.

Large, financially strong companies so far have chosen to rely on self-insurance. Many smaller companies are badly exposed, with neither the insurance or the capability of surviving a recall.

Such companies are facing growing risks and maybe even bankruptcy as their products encounter government and customer vigilance against items considered to be health or safety hazards.

The federal Food and Drug Administration alone ordered the recall of more than 1,400 products last year, up more than 500 from a year earlier. The list included 365 foods, 827 drugs, 90 devices, and 44 cosmetics.

Despite this, only a tiny percentage of companies have bothered to buy recall insurance. In the entire country it is estimated that only about 200 companies have such coverage, despite its availability since 1966.

Industry officials claim the unpopularity of the insurance can't be traced to any reluctance to publicize on their part, but a random check of several companies revealed considerable ignorance of such policies.

Some manufacturers apparently believe their standard liability policies offer protection, which they do not. Such policies protect against claims of injury or damage but to not provide coverage for recalls.

Recall insurance pays the cost of notifying distributors and consumers to discontinue using a product as well as the actual withdrawal cost. Also included are costs of stationery, postage, telephone and telegraph, advertisements, employee overtime and outside hired help and the costs of unusual disposal problems, such as might be involved in disposing of an aerosol can.

To qualify for the insurance, which is available to practically any manufacturer, a company usually is required to present a plan of withdrawal, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Typically, a policy requires that the insured pay at least the first $1,000 in costs and then participate to some extent—10 per cent of 20 per cent—in expenses above that figure.

Because of the scanty experience with the insurance, rates so far are not standardized but depend heavily on the assessment of the individual applicants.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

In a recent five-year period the age at which the most U.S. girls were married rose from 18 years to 19. The age at which most men became bridegrooms stayed steady at 21.

Noise is known to cause irritability and sleeplessness, but can it affect your sex life adversely? Some Russian medical experts believe so. They attribute much sexual incompatibility to the effect of noise.

Most bosses are giving the cold shoulder now to girls who want to wear hotpants to the office—a problem which has been shelved temporarily now anyway by the advent of cold weather. A survey showed that 63 per cent of responding executives banned hotpants from their business premises. But the issue is so warm that only 403 out of 1,046 bosses questioned said anything other than "no comment."

Body Chart: The ancient Greeks believed that the sole function of the brain was to act as a kind of sponge in cooling the blood. Like so many people do today, they also thought that the emotion of love was located in the heart.

Note to stamp collectors: Many beginners injure or destroy their collections by laying the albums flat instead of standing them upright. The weight of the album can cause the glue on unused stamps to stick to the page.

Romantic pest: A kiss beneath a Christmas mistletoe can lead to lifelong loves. But to biologist this flowering parasite is a deadly pest which kills its host tree and causes the loss of $100 million worth of lumber yearly. The Romans, says the National Geographic Society, believed that a sprig of mistletoe assured safe passage across the River Styx into Hades. In Sweden chewing mistetoe was thought helpful for ulcer victims; in England it was also thought to be a cure for epilepsy.

A fashionable peril: Ladies' high boots are in high style at present, but they hold a danger. If worn too tight, doctors warn, they can cause the veins to swell and may even lead to the formation of blood clots in the lower leg. If the boot pinches, give it the boot.

Worth remembering: "You're

History lesson: Can you name which U.S. presidents bore the following nicknames: "American Fabius"; "Hero of New Orleans"; "Preacher President"; and "Prince Arthur"? They were George Washington, Andrew Jackson, James Garfield, and Chester A. Arthur.

Charging the County Board of Elections with "irregularities" in declaring Harold Beavers legally elected as trustee of Scioto Twp., Paul W. Beers, the other competitor for the post, appealed the decision to Common Pleas Court. Beers claimed there was a greater number of ballots voted than there were names appearing on the official poll list book for the precinct. The dispute between the candidates arose when each received an equal number of votes at the general election. Election board members pronounced Beavers elected by a coin toss.

Pickaway County's first case of diphtheria in two years appeared in New Holland, a 4-year-old the victim of a mild case of the disease.

Five Pickaway County schools pupils competed in the annual Prince of Peace Declamation contest at the Circleville Methodist Church. They were: Emma R. Bowers, Ashville; Bertha Painter, Commercial Point; Junior Stucky, Monroe Chapel; Eugene Hall, Emmett's Chapel and June Miller, Salem Church.

A fire, caused by static electricity, which apparently ignited gasoline as it flowed from one of the Circleville Oil Company's fuel storage tanks into a truck, destroyed three tank trucks, the company's garage and small service station, uncounted gallons of gasoline and kerosene, two privately owned automobiles and plunged five cities into darkness as it melted the power lines serving Circleville, Hillsboro, Jackson, Chillicothe and Waverly. Young George Clifton and Fire Chief Talmer Wise were proclaimed heroes as they worked their way to the burning tanks to shut off the valves while firemen played two streams of water on them to keep their clothes from igniting.

Circleville's weather watcher reported balmy weather Dec. 5 as the mercury rose to 65 degrees and settled around 50 for the evening.

Ohio State football coach was guest speaker at the annual Kiwanis Club football banquet held at the Elk's home.

George Wellington, the all-around, fix-it-up man at Ashville, was repairing the former Messick homestead in the village recently purchased by Mrs. Beatrice Schiff. Interior work was also being done, promising to make the house one of the most modern around.

Joseph S. Smith, one of Circleville's most prominent retired men and believed to be the oldest Ohio Alumnus of Notre Dame University, died at his home at "Sunnyside," southeast of Circleville. Mr. Smith was 80. He was organizer of the J. S. Smith and Brothers Milling Co., later known as Ohio Cereal Co., before being sold to the Crites interests. In 1941, the Ralston-Purina plant stood on the site formerly occupied by Smith's mill.

All Circleville was shocked as the announcement was made that Congress had declared war against the Japanese following the Sunday bombing of Pearl Harbor. The day following the announcement of war, livestock and grain prices soared locally and farmers were beginning to fear for the shortage of help.

A group of ten boys, led by Ernie Elwood Stonerock, Route 2, were dispatched immediately to Fort Hayes. The Pickaway County board was asked to induce 204 youths for the war effort of the 2,953 registered military-aged citizens.

They'll Do It Every Time

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

A Parent's Prayer Is Memorable

DEAR ABBY: Two weeks ago I was flying from Los Angeles to Chicago, and had as my seat partner, a soldier on his way home from Viet Nam for a short leave.

Waiting for him was his young wife, a small son, and a new baby daughter which he had never seen. His enthusiasm was easy to share and we talked the whole way.

Before we parted, he smiled and said, "Thanks for talking to me. You mind me so much of my Mom." Then he added, "I have to go back to Viet Nam for five more months, then I want to come back and be the best Daddy in the world. May I share something with you?"

He then pulled from his wallet a well worn piece of paper - or perhaps I should say TWO pieces, because it had been literally worn in two and all around the edges. It was something which he had torn from your column several years ago, he said.

"I have read it over and over," he said, "and I want to be that kind of parent."

I pray to a kind God to protect that young man, and give him more a chance to come home again. The world needs more parents who feel that way. Thanks for printing it again.

Gilligan Glad Tax Bill OKd

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan thanked the General Assembly in a news conference Tuesday for passing a personal income tax bill and a new state budget.

"I want to express my deep gratitude to the members of the legislature, both Republican and Democrat, who worked together to win passage of what I believe to be a landmark piece of legislation in the history of our state, he said.

Gilligan said he understood the bill would be ready for him to sign late this week, "and at that time I intend to have some additional comments on where Ohio goes from here.

Gilligan said the compromise bill, developed by the fourth budget-tax conference committee of the legislative session, "is a major step forward for Ohio — particularly in the field of tax reform.

The governor said that even though spending levels in the bill were "consistently below his proposals, "they represent an important and long overdue beginning of our efforts to upgrade service levels in critical areas of government responsibility.

A PARENT'S PRAYER

"OH, GOD, make me a better parent. Help me to understand my children to listen patiently to what they have to say and to understand all their questions kindly. Keep me from interrupting them, talking back to them and contradicting them. Make me courteous to them as I would have them to me. Give me the courage to confess my sins against my children and ask the forgiveness, when I know that I have done wrong."

"May I not vainly hurt the feelings of my children. Forbid that I should laugh at their mistakes, or resort to shame and ridicule as punishment. Let me not tempt a child to lie and steal. So guide me hour by hour that I may demonstrate by all I say and do that honesty produces happiness."

"Reduce, I pray, the meanness in me. May I cease to nag; and when I am out of sorts, help me, O Lord, to hold my tongue. Blind me to the little errors of my children and help me see the good things that they do. Give me a ready word for honest praise."

"Help me to treat my children as those of their own age, but let me not exact of them the judgments and conventions of adults. allow me not to rob them of the opportunity to wait upon themselves, to think, to choose, and to make their own decisions."

"Forbid that I should ever punish them for my selfish satisfaction. May I grant them all their wishes that are reasonable and have the courage always to withhold a privilege which I know will do them harm."

"Make me so fair and just, so considerate and companionable to my children that they will have genuine esteem for me. Fit me to be loved and imitated by my children. Oh, God, do give me calm and poise and self-control."

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC went all out Tuesday for Christmas.

The network pre-empted its entire schedule, and the viewer who stayed on from the opening broadcast of "The Little Drummer Boy" through "The Coming of Christ" three hours later vicariously ran the gamut of the holiday spirit.

"The Little Drummer Boy" and "The Coming of Christ" both excellent programs, were repeats from other years. The two middle programs were almost as familiar: The annual Christmas shows of Bing Crosby and Andy Williams. Both are, after all these years, television institutions.

Crosby's "The Sounds of Christmas" came along first, looking a lot like a sparkly, family Christmas card. Robert Goulet and Mary Costa were along as singing guests. But what Bing called "The House Band of Casa Crosby" were the real stars of the show—wife Kathryn and children Mary Frances, Nathaniel and Harry.

There were ornate settings with a decorated Christmas tree, frosted window panes and other traditional trimmings, but the hour had a pleasant amateur quality about it.

Andy Williams opened his family hour, which followed, listening to the final strains of "White Christmas." Then on came the Williams clan, another trimmed tree, burning candles, snowflakes and even a little skiing and snow shoeing on stage.

Andy's hour actually was a bit more artful and slick than Bing's special. The four Williams brothers had a couple of numbers. There was a short family production of the story of Andre the toymaker who got amnesia on Christmas Eve. This was mostly filler, for the appealing scenes were those with the Williams children and of the family—joined by the Lennon Sisters—sitting around a holiday-set table. Claudine Longet, sang a song in her whispery appealing voice and in contrast there was some broad comedy.

Except for a slight overlapping of "White Christmas" there was no conflict in the Christmas songs. Andy's hour moved a bit more in the general direction of peace and the joys of family togetherness while Bing's show was full of jolly sleigh bells and more religious music.

Together the Crosby-Williams shows provided two handsome, tuneful and warm hours of family entertainment.

It was a most enjoyable evening, but it is the kind of thing that should be taken sparingly. A little goes a long way, like a whole year.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC went all out Tuesday for Christmas.

The network pre-empted its entire schedule, and the viewer who stayed on from the opening broadcast of "The Little Drummer Boy" through "The Coming of Christ" three hours later vicariously ran the gamut of the holiday spirit.

"The Little Drummer Boy" and "The Coming of Christ" both excellent programs, were repeats from other years. The two middle programs were almost as familiar: The annual Christmas shows of Bing Crosby and Andy Williams. Both are, after all these years, television institutions.

Crosby's "The Sounds of Christmas" came along first, looking a lot like a sparkly, family Christmas card. Robert Goulet and Mary Costa were along as singing guests. But what Bing called "The House Band of Casa Crosby" were the real stars of the show—wife Kathryn and children Mary Frances, Nathaniel and Harry.

There were ornate settings with a decorated Christmas tree, frosted window panes and other traditional trimmings, but the hour had a pleasant amateur quality about it.

Andy Williams opened his family hour, which followed, listening to the film strains of "White Christmas." Then on came the Williams clan, another trimmed tree, burning candles, snowflakes and even a little skiing and snow shoeing on stage.

Andy's hour actually was a bit more artful and slick than Bing's special. The four Williams brothers had a couple of numbers. There was a short family production of the story of Andre the toymaker who got amnesia on Christmas Eve. This was mostly filler, for the appealing scenes were those with the Williams children and of the family—joined by the Lennon Sisters—sitting around a holiday-set table. Claudine Longet, sang a song in her whispery appealing voice and in contrast there was some broad comedy.

Except for a slight overlapping of "White Christmas" there was no conflict in the Christmas songs. Andy's hour moved a bit more in the general direction of peace and the joys of family togetherness while Bing's show was full of jolly sleigh bells and more religious music.

Together the Crosby-Williams shows provided two handsome, tuneful and warm hours of family entertainment.

It was a most enjoyable evening, but it is the kind of thing that should be taken sparingly. A little goes a long way, like a whole year.

Bones And Skull Found Near Kent

KENT, Ohio (AP) — A human skull and several bones found by a hunter north of Kent near Lake Rockwell have been turned over to the FBI for investigation. The remains have not been identified.

Portage County deputies said the hunter, not identified, brought the skull in Monday. The other remains, badly decomposed, were found when deputies returned with the hunter to the spot where the skull had been located.

Authorities said the body could have been there for several years. Only one small piece of cloth was found with the bones.

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Summerlike temperatures were the rule over the state today as readings climbed following passage of a warm front north through Ohio this morning.

Rainfall has been general across the state, with amounts of one-quarter inch to an inch common during the 24 hours ending this morning.

A strong low pressure system moving northeast through the Mississippi Valley may bring stormy, windy weather to the state with the mild temperatures.

A cold front pushing through the state will end the short taste of summer. Highs Thursday will reach only the 40s or low 50s.

American Father Loses Bid For Children In Britain

LONDON (AP) — Britain's appeals court has ruled against an American father who asked to take his two young children from their British mother because she earns "a precarious living in Wales."

"If the children went to America and the mother stayed here, they would lose the care and attention that only a mother can give," declared Lord

Justice Edmund Davies.

What was important, said the judge, was not the substantial earning power of the American father, an electrician making $15,000 a year, but the happiness of the children.

The ruling Monday meant that Gerald J. Ashley Jr., 4, and his sister Gillian, 2, will stay with their mother, Mrs. Winifred Ashley, 37, who runs a small boarding house in the Welsh resort of Rhyl.

Mrs. Ashley and her husband, Gerald, parted three years ago and she returned to this country from the United States.

Lord Justice Davies said that if the children had been returned to their father they would have to live with an uncle and aunt, Russell and Joan Ashley, in Mansfield, Ohio.

"Tearing away these infants from the only parent they had regularly known could be a terrible shock if they were sent as strangers in a strange land," even though the country of their nationality, said the judge.

His ruling overturned a decision in the fathers favor made earlier this year by the High Court.

The judge said the nature of their fathers work meant the children would "inevitably see much less of their father than most other children could expect to see."

The mother said the children's father lives with his brother and sister-in-law in Mansfield and works in Toledo.

Mrs. Ashley's appeal had been financed by the townspeople of Rhyl. She hugged friends and relatives after the judge declared: "The proper place for the children is to be with their mother where they have been all their lives."

Beavers cut their winter supply of wood in the fall. An early cutting generally means an early winter.

Strip Mine Tour Urged By Solon

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—State Rep.-elect Joe Graves, R-Lexington, has asked Gov. Wendell Ford to sponsor a series of tours of strip mine sites for members of the 1972 Legislature.

The tours, he added, could be made both by air and on the surface and should be preceded by a concise and fair-minded briefing of the legislators on strip mine regulations and economic aspects of the industry.

Graves suggested that half of the mines to be visited be selected by mining interests and half by environmentalists and that each group be allowed to present their views to the lawmakers.

A number of North American animals hibernate during the cold winter months, such as the jumping mouse, badger, bat, woodchuck, chipmunk, bear and some ground squirrels.

Name Police Chief In Kentucky City

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—John Holman Jr., who will begin serving as police chief of nearby Fort Mitchell Jan. 3, says he intends to upgrade training of the city's police force.

Holman, 36, of Lexington and currently associate director of the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council, also says he plans to improve local record keeping of the force and follow-through in investigative work.

FOOD CLUB - BEST BUY BY FAR

The story of the Food Club brand and quality goes back some 27 years when a group of leading independent food stores all over the country got together to form a cooperative buying organization. Mr. Wayne E. Brown, president of Big Bear Stores and Hart Stores, was instrumental in initiating this effort.

The purpose of this cooperative was to provide these food chains a top quality line of private label grocery, dairy and processed meat products. These lines could be offered at a substantial savings to their customers, since there would be no marketing expense involved. In order to assure their customers of getting the best buy for the money, a strong program of quality control was instituted from the buying of the raw products through the production and distribution process. What better name to express this unique cooperative idea than Food Club?

Over the years, membership in this "Food Club" has been extended to 30 leading, quality minded independent food companies. The basic values and quality standards that have made Food Club one of America's largest selling brands have been maintained and are of even greater importance today when comparative shopping involves comparing price and quality.

That's why at Big Bear we say "top quality need not be expensive". Shop Big Bear this week and see for yourself how much you can save by joining our "Food Club".

70 Per Cent Of School Levies Turned Down

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voters rejected about 70 per cent of the school levy requests on ballots in special elections around Ohio Tuesday.

New millage was approved for two of four school districts in which continued operations this year hinged on Tuesday's vote.

Saved from imminent school shutdowns were the Indian Creek Local District in Jefferson County and the South Central Local School District in Huron County.

Cinema X Films Blasted

CINCINNATI (AP) — The founder of the Citizens for Decent Literature blames "pornographers for profit" for contributing to a "moral breakdown" reflected in increased venereal disease and sexual assaults.

Charles Keating, who founded CDL 15 years ago, testified Tuesday in the three-week old trial of Cinema X International. He brought the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court suit against the downtown theater charging that it should be closed as a public nuisance because its films were allegedly pornographic.

Keating admitted under cross examination, however, that he had never been inside the theater. But he was satisfied, he said, that the investigation conducted by his attorney, James Clancy, of Los Angeles, and that the films were pornographic and in violation of state law.

Judge William Matthews earlier ordered the firm to produce two films in question before the trial ended or face fines of $400 per day. Attorneys for the theater said the films were out of town and could not be produced before Feb. 4, 1972.

The court permitted the showing of slides taken by Clancy during the screening of the films at the theater accompanied by a tape recorded account of the story line of the movies by Clancy.

Keating said there had been "a breakdown in public morality due to the incursion of pornographers into our community."

He said the moral breakdown was reflected in the increased rate of venereal disease, sexual assaults and criminal cases in the Cincinnati area in recent years. He said films shown by pornographers violated Ohio law.

Government-Paid Medical Teams Go To Needy Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government-paid physicians, dentists and nurses will get their marching orders Thursday to begin providing health care in doctor-poor city slums and rural areas.

The National Health Service Corps, a pioneer effort to cure lack of medical treatment in high-crime and low-income regions where private doctors hesitate to practice, hopes to place health professionals in 20 areas by the end of January, with another 20 in March and between 20 and 60 by July.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Elliot L. Richardson has approved regulations to be published Thursday.

Toledo Asks AIP To Move Convention

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Saying Toledo cannot afford it financially or socially, Mayor Harry Kessler asked the American Independent Party Tuesday to cancel plans to hold its national convention here.

Kessler told AIP national Chairman T. Coleman Andrews in a letter that the presidential nomination convention "could conceivably result in violence or a breakdown in adequate security for officials attending the convention."

He said Toledo does not have adequate facilities to handle a national political gathering and could not afford to provide enough security.

Kessler added that the convention could jeopardize the improving relationships between the city's various ethnic groups.

"We will look forward to a forthcoming announcement that another community has been selected as the site for your 1972 convention," Kessler told Andrews.

The AIP announced earlier it had accepted an invitation from the Toledo Convention Bureau to hold its convention here.

Following local criticism of the invitation, the AIP indicated it might hold the meeting elsewhere. But the convention bureau stood by its invitation and the party decided not to change its plans.

School Aid Plan Provides Equality

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The State School Superintendents office proposed a plan for distributing state aid to local school systems Tuesday which theoretically could provide equal educational opportunities for every child in the state.

Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, an aide to State School Supt. John J. Loughlin, said the plan would do away with the inequities of financing public school costs primarily through property taxes—a system ruled unconstitutional by the California Supreme Court.

Basically, the system would guarantee that the same property tax levy would raise the same amount of money per pupil anywhere in the state. The difference between the amount of money the property tax levy raises, and the amount of money needed per pupil, would be paid by the state.

The first global conference on the environment will be held in Stockholm next June 5-12.

Nixon Mending His Fences With Liberal Wing Of Party

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid signs the White House wants to mend pre-election fences with Republican liberals, efforts for President Nixon's 1972 campaign opens this week in two more states.

GOP organizations in Maryland and Oregon, both states with liberal Republican senators, will announce formation of committees to run Nixon's all-but-certain campaign. Despite the absence of an official candidacy announcement, a reelection committee already has been established in New Hampshire.

Reports have been circulating in recent weeks that Maryland Sen. Charles McC. Mathias Jr. is "on a White House list of those to be purged."

But Mathias, who does not boast about his occasional breaks with the administration, planned to be present today in Baltimore for the campaign kickoff. Sen. J. Glenn Beall Jr., a more consistent Nixon supporter, also will be on hand.

And Mathias' aides Tuesday asserted the senator's support of Nixon's re-election bid, denying any reports of a purge.

It was also learned Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell has told Mathias not to worry, that the purge reports were totally unfounded. Mathias is up for reelection in 1974.

Liberal Republican Mark Hatfield of Oregon, whose term

expires next year, also said he is happy with arrangements for opening the Nixon campaign Thursday in his state.

Rep. Wendell Wyatt, R-Ore., will be named chairman of the drive and Hatfield said Henry Flemming of the Washington-based national committee for the re-election of the President asked him beforehand about naming Wyatt.

"They were very solicitous," Hatfield said, "and most anxious to work together. They couldn't have got a better man than Wendell Wyatt."

The liberal fears date back to the 1970 congressional election when Sen. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., a liberal, had to run without White House support. He was defeated.

One spokesman for the national committee, while denying the campaign announcements were timed to end talk of purges, said "certainly that will be one effect."

2 Men Identified As Holdup Accomplices

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two Cincinnati men who appeared Tuesday as prosecution witnesses in an armed robbery hearing were identified as accomplices by a third witness and were arrested.

James Jordan, 19, and Roy Marshall, 20, were scheduled for arraignment today. They were witnesses Dennis Williams, 20, who was bound over to the grand jury in connection with a Nov. 15 robbery of a service station.

All appeared in Hamilton County Municipal Court.

Government-Paid Medical Teams Go To Needy Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government-paid physicians, dentists and nurses will get their marching orders Thursday to begin providing health care in doctor-poor city slums and rural areas.

The National Health Service Corps, a pioneer effort to cure lack of medical treatment in high-crime and low-income regions where private doctors hesitate to practice, hopes to place health professionals in 20 areas by the end of January, with another 20 in March and between 20 and 60 by July.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Elliot L. Richardson has approved regulations to be published Thursday.

Toledo Asks AIP To Move Convention

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Saying Toledo cannot afford it financially or socially, Mayor Harry Kessler asked the American Independent Party Tuesday to cancel plans to hold its national convention here.

Kessler told AIP national Chairman T. Coleman Andrews in a letter that the presidential nomination convention "could conceivably result in violence or a breakdown in adequate security for officials attending the convention."

He said Toledo does not have adequate facilities to handle a national political gathering and could not afford to provide enough security.

Kessler added that the convention could jeopardize the improving relationships between the city's various ethnic groups.

"We will look forward to a forthcoming announcement that another community has been selected as the site for your 1972 convention," Kessler told Andrews.

The AIP announced earlier it had accepted an invitation from the Toledo Convention Bureau to hold its convention here.

Following local criticism of the invitation, the AIP indicated it might hold the meeting elsewhere. But the convention bureau stood by its invitation and the party decided not to change its plans.

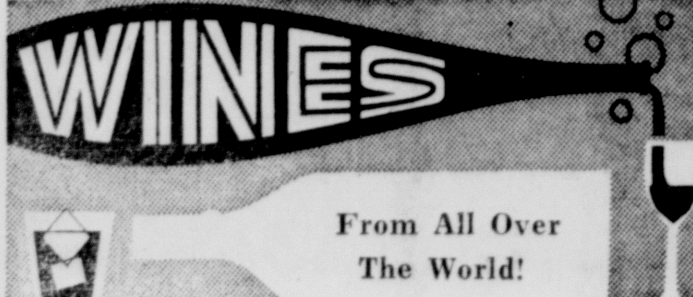

School Aid Plan Provides Equality

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The State School Superintendents office proposed a plan for distributing state aid to local school systems Tuesday which theoretically could provide equal educational opportunities for every child in the state.

Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, an aide to State School Supt. John J. Loughlin, said the plan would do away with the inequities of financing public school costs primarily through property taxes—a system ruled unconstitutional by the California Supreme Court.

Basically, the system would guarantee that the same property tax levy would raise the same amount of money per pupil anywhere in the state. The difference between the amount of money the property tax levy raises, and the amount of money needed per pupil, would be paid by the state.

The first global conference on the environment will be held in Stockholm next June 5-12.

Nixon Mending His Fences With Liberal Wing Of Party

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid signs the White House wants to mend pre-election fences with Republican liberals, efforts for President Nixon's 1972 campaign opens this week in two more states.

GOP organizations in Maryland and Oregon, both states with liberal Republican senators, will announce formation of committees to run Nixon's all-but-certain campaign. Despite the absence of an official candidacy announcement, a re-election committee already has been established in New Hampshire.

Reports have been circulating in recent weeks that Maryland Sen. Charles McC. Mathias Jr. is "on a White House list of those to be purged."

But Mathias, who does not boast about his occasional breaks with the administration, planned to be present today in Baltimore for the campaign kickoff. Sen. J. Glenn Beall Jr., a more consistent Nixon supporter, also will be on hand.

And Mathias' aides Tuesday asserted the senator's support of Nixon's re-election bid, denying any reports of a purge.

It was also learned Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell has told Mathias not to worry, that the purge reports were totally unfounded. Mathias is up for re-election in 1974.

Liberal Republican Mark Hatfield of Oregon, whose term

expires next year, also said he is happy with arrangements for opening the Nixon campaign Thursday in his state.

Rep. Wendell Wyatt, R-Ore., will be named chairman of the drive and Hatfield said Henry Flemming of the Washington-based national committee for the re-election of the President asked him beforehand about naming Wyatt.

"They were very solicitous," Hatfield said, "and most anxious to work together. They couldn't have got a better man than Wendell Wyatt."

The liberal fears date back to the 1970 congressional election when Sen. Charles Goodell, R-N.Y., a liberal, had to run without White House support. He was defeated.

One spokesman for the national committee, while denying the campaign announcements were timed to end talk of purges, said "certainly that will be one effect."

2 Men Identified As Holdup Accomplices

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two Cincinnati men who appeared Tuesday as prosecution witnesses in an armed robbery hearing were identified as accomplices by a third witness and were arrested.

James Jordan, 19, and Roy Marshall, 20, were scheduled for arraignment today. They were witnesses Dennis Williams, 20, who was bound over to the grand jury in connection with a Nov. 15 robbery of a service station.

All appeared in Hamilton County Municipal Court.

Wind, Rain Lash Wide Area Of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Wind and rain lashed wide areas of the nation from the Southern Plains to New England today and snow and sleet coated scattered Northern sections.

Rain and wind, possibly including a tornado, caused at least one death and injured more than a dozen persons in southwest Missouri Tuesday night.

The storm raked the communities of Anderson, Newtonia, Republic, Springfield, Willard and Buffalo, killing one person in Republic and causing hundreds of thousands of dollars in property damage.

A tornado at Western Grove, Ark., brought extensive property damage, but no injuries were reported.

Flash-flood warnings were issued for portions of west-central Missouri and Southern Illinois as heavy rains swelled tributaries of the Mississippi.

Snow fell from the Northern Plains to the northern Great Lakes, while heavy rain mixed with sleet brought travel warnings to western New York State.

Snow also piled up in northern Rockies and the eastern Great Basin, while showery weather soaked in the Pacific Northwest.

Clear skies were confined to the Southwest from Southern California to western Texas and the Southeast from Georgia to Florida.

Early morning temperatures ranged from one below zero at Havre, Mont., to 77 at Key West, Fla.

Job Hazards Uncovered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new federal job safety agency, says it found health or safety hazards at 80 per cent of the firms it inspected in its first six months.

Inspectors of the Labor Department's Occupational Safety and Health Administration looked at 9,300 firms which had fatal accidents, were in high-injury industries or where employees had complained. OSHA said Monday in a report to Congress that it cited 5,636 of those firms for alleged violations carrying proposed fines of $361,692, most of which have been paid without appeal. Another 1,842 were told they had minor violations, but no citations were issued. Only 20 per cent were found violation-free.

The agency was set up under a law Congress passed last year to provide federal health and safety standards on the job for 60 million workers at 4.1 million firms. The 9,300 firms inspected so far employ 1.5 million workers.

The job safety administration gives first attention to investigations of catastrophes or fatalities, including last weekend's Port Huron tunnel explosion in Michigan. Second priority goes to "valid complaints by employees, 686 of them through Nov. 1. Third is a list of industries with poor safety records.

Research Outlays Rise

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Battelle Memorial Institute said today that expenditures in 1972 for research and development in the nation were expected to reach a new high of $30.1 billion.

The annual forecast made by the private research organization said the record total will result from substantial increases in spending by both industry and the federal government.

The predicted $30.1 billion would be an 8 per cent rise over the estimated 1971 total of $27.8 billion and the largest increase since the mid-1960s. Increases in the three years since 1968 are estimated to be 4.4, 2.6 and 3.7 per cent, respectively.

Battelle's forecast, however, cautioned "this increase reflects intentions which may not be fully realized during the year because of slippages in the appropriations-spending process. It also cautioned that the predicted 8 per cent increase in expenditures in 1972 is about double the average increase that is expected for the 1970s.

"Optimism is further tempered, the forecast said, "with a reminder that increases in the costs of performing research and development in the 1969-72 period will not be fully offset by the increased expenditures.

Amnesty Urged In Draft Cases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert Taft, R-Ohio, introduced legislation Tuesday that would provide qualified amnesty for some 70,000 draft resisters, some in federal jails or in exile.

"I believe the time has come for us to turn our attention to the question of draft resisters and whether we, as a nation, are so wise, strong, and charitable as to offer them an opportunity to be reunified with our American society, Taft said at a news conference.

The proposed qualified amnesty would allow the exiles to return without fear of prosecution, provided they agree to serve three years in the armed forces or elect for the same period to serve in such federal agencies as VISTA, the Public Health Service or the Veterans Administration.

Teaching Experiment Worth Continuing

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Classroom teaching by business firms under pay-for-results-only contracts is not a magic answer to improving remedial education, Rand Corp. researchers report.

But the new system, performance contracting, has shown "enough promising features to merit further experimentation, they added.

Income Tax Hike Nixed At Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A proposed increase in Dayton's city income tax form 1 to 1.5 percent was rejected at the polls Tuesday by a 15,078-to-13,000 vote.

Only one-third of the registered voters turned out on a cloudy, drizzly day.

"It's understandable, City Manager James Kunde said of the result as the vote was tallied.

"We've just had a new state income tax, a new school tax and a new transit tax, he said. "I think people are cognizant of our problems at City Hall, but are saying we will have to live with what we have.

As a result of defeat of the income tax hike, the city must cut another $1.3 million worth from the 1972 budget. The austerity measures will include the closing of city parks and recreational facilities and the turning off of street lights, officials have said.

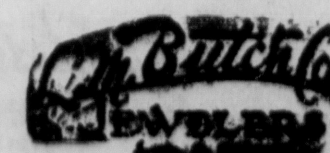

The increase would have produced an additional $5.5 million a year. It would have provided money for police, firemen, waste collection and other "basic services, officials said.

County Grade Schools Split Cage Contests

Teays Valley's seventh grade cagers downed Logan Elm, 45-27, but the Logan Elm eighth graders turned the tables and upended the Teays Valley five, 32-13, in a pair of contests at Logan Elm Tuesday.

Bruce Anderson led the Viking seventh graders with 14 points, Tim Tosca added 12, Joe Rice 11, Willie Marcum four and Terry Trego and Lance Roese each added two for the winners.

Mark Skinner paced Logan Elm with 15 tallies, Randy Pontius hooped six and Chuck Cave, Doug Woods and Kenny Speakman had two apiece.

Jeff Reichelderfer was the big man for the Braves' eighth graders with 12, Steve Rawlins and Bob Sargent each netted eight and Ronnie Maxson and Mike Miller had two each for the winners.

Dave Schiff fired eight points for the Vikings, Jeff Cauger had three and Brad Sherman two.

Teays Valley's seventh graders are 2-0 and the eighth graders are 1-3 for the season. Both teams will play at Westfall Thursday.

Logan Elm's seventh and eighth graders are both 2-2 and will see action again on Jan. 5 when they host Zane Trace.

Cougars Stop Squires; Win Tilt, 125-121

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS With Jim McDaniels holding the key to both baskets, the Carolina Cougars pulled within a step of the cellar door and kept Virginia from creeping closer to the penthouse.

McDaniels, Carolina's 7-foot rookie from Western Kentucky, poured in 39 points on one end of the court Tuesday night and hauled down 23 rebounds on the other end to power the Cougars to a 125-121 triumph over the Squires.

That lifted the last-place Cougars within half a game of the Floridians and New York Nets, tied for fourth place in the American Basketball Association's East Division, and left Virginia two games back of the idle, first-place Kentucky Colonels.

In other ABA action, Pittsburgh edged Memphis 130-128, Indiana beat Dallas 107-98 and Denver slipped by the Nets 119-118.

The Cougars led by as many as 21 points before the Squires cut the gap to 117-115 in the closing minutes. But a hot hand at the free throw line kept Carolina in command the rest of the way.

Larry Miller added 27 points and George Lehnman had 24 for the winners while Julius Erving had 30 for Virginia.

Pittsburgh, collecting its fifth successive victory, rallied from a 108-101 fourth-quarter deficit to turn back Memphis as John Brisker pumped in 34 points and George Thompson clicked for 33 for the Condors. Johnny Neumann's 29 topped the Pros.

Kiwanis Classic Cage Tourney Set

SPRING ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Five teams from Michigan and one each from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio are set to compete in the three-day Kiwanis Classic basketball tournament beginning Thursday at host Spring Arbor College.

It is the seventh annual Kiwanis Classic, and all entrants except one played in it last year. The newcomer is Olivet Nazarene of Kankakee, Ill.

Others from outside Michigan are Urbana College of Urbana, Ohio, and Tri-State College of Angola, Ind.

Champagne Greets Football Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Allen usually drinks milk, but this time the occasion called for a little more.

The Washington Redskins' head coach met his weekly news conference Tuesday with two bottles of champagne.

"It isn't often we can celebrate," he said, referring to Monday's decisive 38-24 National Football League victory over the Los Angeles Rams. The triumph put the Redskins in the playoffs for the first time since 1945.

tive secretary of the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association has the figures to back him.

Gideon was one of the panelists on state playoffs Tuesday at the National Conference of High School Directors of Athletics. The four-day event wound up today.

The Ohio High School Athletic Association board of control was to decide today the fate of playoffs in this state, a controversial issue for the last two years.

"The playoffs are the greatest thing to increase crowds that we've ever had in Tennessee," said Gideon.

"We had a Nashville team that was undefeated and draw 25,000 in its last game. And that wasn't even a playoff game. The school took in $37,000 from the one game alone," the Tennessee leader said.

Gideon says Tennessee is divided into four regions with three classes like Ohio. The state association rates the teams weekly during the season. The top four teams play in the semifinals on one of the squad's fields.

Cincinnati Tops BGSU, Wins 83-72

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS "The difference was in their quickness," Bowling Green Basketball Coach Pat Haley said after his Falcons were victimized by Cincinnati 83-72 Tuesday night.

"Everything we tried to do they took away from us," Haley lamented.

Cincinnati jumped off to a 13-2 lead in the first five minutes of play. But Bowling Green got hot and closed to within two points, 26-24, before the Bearcats outscored their hosts 12-3 for a 38-27 halftime advantage.

"I think they were just awed by us at the beginning of the game," reflected Cincinnati Coach Tay Baker.

"But once they found out we were just as human as they were and that they could stick in there with us, they started to play hard."

Leading the Bearcats to their third win in as many games was Lloyd Batts with 21 points. Team mate Derrek Dickey added 10.

The Falcons (1-3) were paced by Dalynn Badenhop with 20 points.

In another game on an abbreviated college basketball schedule Tuesday night, unbeaten Urbana posted its eighth win of the season by defeating Malone 112-101 in a Mid - Ohio Conference clash of powerful offenses.

The Blue Knights' Mark Todd netted a game-high 31 points, while John Plunkett added 28 and Terry Anderson 20. The win improved Urbana's league mark to 4-0.

Pacing Malone (0-3) were Bill Marzich with 25 points and Jerry Townsend with 20.

Kenyon recorded its first win of the season at the expense of Wilmington 67-66. Forward Mike White swished the winning basket with 20 seconds left to play.

Robinson Sees Trade By Bengals

CINCINNATI (AP) — Running back Paul Robinson, who has apparently lost his starting job with the Cincinnati Bengals, feels he may be traded by the National Football League club although he will start Sunday against the New York Jets.

Robinson, from the University of Arizona, was rookie of the year in 1968 after he ran for 1,023 yards, the first rookie ever to run more than 1,000 yards in professional football. His average was 4.3 yards per carry.

Robinson has been benched, except for kickoff returns, since mid-season when Coach Paul Brown went with rookie Dave Willis from Boston College.

"I just sort of have the feeling I'll be traded," said Robinson, who has only 44 carries for 196 yards this year. Willis has been backed up by running back Essex Johnson, who has run for six touchdowns.

"I really don't want to think about it now," he said. "I want to play it cool and I don't want to do anything to upset the team for this last game."

Robinson said he was upset earlier about not playing and had a talk with Brown. He started the next game but played only the first quarter against Houston.

"Well, I'll have another talk with him after the season, and maybe something will happen after that. I don't know, but I guess the thought of being traded has crossed my mind all right," he said.

large as the biggest one you have during the regular season," said Gideon.

"And it's not good to have the playoffs on a neutral field. If you do, you lose all of your school children. It's too far for them to go," he said.

"We had a Class AAA playoff game at Bristol this year. It was a 7:30 game and by 5:30 all of the 9,000 seats were filled," said Gideon.

He says each school and the state association take a third of the net profits from the playoff contests. "We think each team needs that much since you have to travel the band. It costs more."

Ohio Commissioner Harold Meyer and his two assistants, George Bates and Fred Daffler, took in the state playoff panel discussions, seeking more knowledge before the state board meeting today.

The playoffs are expected to start in Ohio in 1972 if the board gives its anticipated approval. State high schools backed them in a recent survey by a 3-2 margin.

At a conference banquet Tuesday night, the National Federation of State High School Associations cited six school athletic directors for their contributions to sports.

They were Richard Mayer of Sturgis, Mich., Eugene Littler of Tenafly, N. J., John E. Klement of Monona Grove, Wisc., Maxwell Ivey of Atlanta, Ga., Mel Schwartz of Jefferson County, Colo., and Dr. Reese Pollard of Shawnee Mission, Kan.

Milwaukee Tops Houston 106-98 In NBA Cage Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Are the Milwaukee Bucks, holders of the National Basketball Association record for consecutive victories before Los Angeles broke it recently, getting jealous of the Lakers' streak?

Apparently so. While the Lakers, who have been grabbing all the recent headlines, extended their record string to 22 victories, beating Portland 129-114 Tuesday night, the Bucks quietly reeled off their sixth straight triumph, downing Houston 106-98.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Phoenix topped New York 110-100, Seattle trounced Detroit 103-88, Buffalo defeated Philadelphia 117-110, Boston trimmed Chicago 116-108, and Cleveland edged Baltimore 88-85.

Los Angeles, unbeaten since Oct. 31, used a balanced attack in subduing Portland. Five Lakers scored at least 20 points, with Wilt Chamberlain and Gail Goodrich leading the way with 24 points apiece. Chamberlain also grabbed 18 rebounds, blocked seven shots and had eight assists.

Jerry West also had a strong game for the Laker, getting 23 points, 15 assists and seven steals. Sidney Wicks topped Portland with 31 points.

Milwaukee, which established the previous record of 20 straight victories last season en route to the league title, was paced by Oscar Robertson's 29 points. Kareem Jabbar, the defending scoring champion and current leader, chipped in with 25 points for the Bucks.

Phoenix, beating New York for the first time in nine attempts at Madison Square Garden, got 24 points from Neal Walk, 23 from Dennis Layton and 21 apiece from Connie Hawkins and Dick Van Arsdale. Dick Barnett topped the Knicks with 25 points and Walt Frazier had 24, 19 in the final period.

Dick Selma of the Philadelphia Phillies struck out 153 National League batters in 134 innings in 1970.

Area Cagers Face Curtailed Slate

It will be a curtailed slate for all three county schools this week with each one going to the boards on Friday and getting the day off Saturday.

Teays Valley 1-4, will be at home with Olentangy, Westfall, 2-4, will host East Clinton and Logan Elm, 2-4, will travel to Piketon.

Coach Bob Hoover and his Vikings will endeavor to get back on the winning trail after losing four straight games. They ripped Miami Trace in the season opener but haven't been able to get back into the swing of things again.

Olentangy has shown some real scoring punch in several contests and the Vikings will have to go all out if they are going to get onto the winning side of the Metropolitan ledger.

DISCIPLINARY action at Westfall resulted in Bruce Beatty and Alan Christopher being dropped from the squad and Coach Jeff Bigam and his Mustangs have been working hard all week in an effort to come up with a set lineup.

They will be going up against a good East Clinton team who has been able to put points on the board this year.

The Astros are a small club with good speed and rely on 6-foot-2 Joe Davis to get the rebounding job done for them.

It seems Coach Chuck Prichard and his Logan Elm Braves are off and running after dropping their first four games.

The Redmen broke into the winning column with a victory over a tough Adena five and then took the Teays Valley Vikings into camp last week.

They will be out to make three in a row Friday night against the Red Streaks of Pike- ton who sport a 1-4 record for the season.

Football coach Jim Owens is in his 15th season at the University of Washington.

Prep Grid Playoffs Profitable

By GEORGE STRODE — Associated Press Sports Writer COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If Ohio approves state high school football playoffs, athletic departments can expect a boost in their crowds and finances.

County Grade Schools Split Cage Contests

Teays Valley's seventh grade cagers downed Logan Elm, 45-27, but the Logan Elm eighth graders turned the tables and upended the Teays Valley five, 32-13, in a pair of contests at Logan Elm Tuesday.

Bruce Anderson led the Viking seventh graders with 14 points. Tim Tosca added 12, Joe Rice 11, Willie Marcum four and Terry Trego and Lance Reese each added two for the winners.

Mark Skinner paced Logan Elm with 15 tallies, Randy Pontius hooped six and Chuck Cave, Doug Woods and Kenny Speakman had two apiece.

Cougars Stop Squires; Win Tilt, 125-121

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS With Jim McDaniels holding the key to both baskets, the Carolina Cougars pulled within a step of the cellar door and kept Virginia from creeping closer to the penthouse.

McDaniels, Carolina's 7-foot rookie from Western Kentucky, poured in 39 points on one end of the court Tuesday night and hauled down 23 rebounds on the other end to power the Cougars to a 125-121 triumph over the Squires.

That lifted the last-place Cougars within half a game of the Floridians and New York Nets, tied for fourth place in the American Basketball Association's East Division, and left Virginia two games back of the idle, first-place Kentucky Colonels.

In other ABA action, Pittsburgh edged Memphis 130-128, Indiana beat Dallas 107-98 and Denver slipped by the Nets 119-118.

The Cougars led by as many as 21 points before the Squires cut the gap to 117-115 in the closing minutes. But a hot hand at the free throw line kept Carolina in command the rest of the way.

Larry Miller added 27 points and George Lehmann had 24 for the winners while Julius Erving had 30 for Virginia.

Pittsburgh, collecting its fifth successive victory, rallied from a 108-101 fourth-quarter deficit to turn back Memphis as John Brisker pumped in 34 points and George Thompson clicked for 33 for the Condors. Johnny Neumann's 29 topped the Pros.

Kiwanis Classic Cage Tourney Set

SPRING ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Five teams from Michigan and one each from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio are set to compete in the three-day Kiwanis Classic basketball tournament beginning Thursday at host Spring Arbor College.

It is the seventh annual Kiwanis Classic, and all entrants except one played in it last year. The newcomer is Olivet Nazarene of Kankakee, Ill.

Others from outside Michigan are Urbana College of Urbana, Ohio, and Tri-State College of Angola, Ind.

Champagne Greets Football Newsmen WASHINGTON (AP) — George Allen usually drinks milk, but this time the occasion called for a little more.

That's the opinion of Gil Gideon and the assistant executive secretary of the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association has the figures to back him.

Gideon was one of the panelists on state playoffs Tuesday at the National Conference of High School Directors of Athletics. The four-day event wound up today.

The Ohio High School Athletic Association board of control was to decide today the fate of playoffs in this state, a controversial issue for the last two years.

"The playoffs are the greatest thing to increase crowds that we've ever had in Tennessee," said Gideon.

"We had a Nashville team that was undefeated and drew 25,000 in its last game. And that wasn't even a playoff game. The school took in $37,000 from the one game alone," the Tennessee leader said.

Gideon says Tennessee is divided into four regions with three classes like Ohio. The state association rates the teams weekly during the season. The top four teams play in the semifinals on one of the squad's fields.

"You can expect a crowd as large as the biggest one you have during the regular season," said Gideon.

"And it's not good to have the playoffs on a neutral field. If you do, you lose all of your school children. It's too far for them to go," he said.

"We had a Class AAA playoff game at Bristol this year. It was a 7:30 game and by 5:30 all of the 9,000 seats were filled," said Gideon.

He says each school and the state association take a third of the net profits from the playoff contests. "We think each team needs that much since you have to travel the band. I. costs more."

Ohio Commissioner Harold Meyer and his two assistants, George Bates and Fred Daffler, took in the state playoff panel discussions, seeking more knowledge before the state board meeting today.

The playoffs are expected to start in Ohio in 1972 if the board gives its anticipated approval. State high schools backed them in a recent survey by a 3-2 margin.

At a conference banquet Tuesday night, the National Federation of State High School Associations cited six school athletic directors for their contributions to sports.

They were Richard Mayer of Sturgis, Mich., Eugene Littler of Tenafly, N. J., John E. Klement of Monona Grove, Wis., Maxwell Ivey of Atlanta, Ga., Mel Schwartz of Jefferson County, Colo., and Dr. Reese Pollard of Shawnee Mission, Kan.

Milwaukee Tops Houston 106-98 In NBA Cage Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Are the Milwaukee Bucks, holders of the National Basketball Association record for consecutive victories before Los Angeles broke it recently, getting jealous of the Lakers' streak?

Apparently so. While the Lakers, who have been grabbing all the recent headlines, extended their record string to 22 victories, beating Portland 129-114 Tuesday night, the Bucks quietly reeled off their sixth straight triumph, downing Houston 106-98.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Phoenix topped New York 110-100, Seattle trounced Detroit 103-86, Buffalo defeated Philadelphia 117-110, Boston trimmed Chicago 116-108 and Cleveland edged Baltimore 88-85.

Los Angeles, unbeaten since Oct. 31, used a balanced attack in subduing Portland. Five Lakers scored at least 20 points, with Wilt Chamberlain and Gail Goodrich leading the way with 24 points apiece. Chamberlain also grabbed 18 rebounds, blocked seven shots and had eight assists.

Jerry West also had a strong game for the Laker, getting 23 points, 15 assists and seven steals. Sidney Wicks topped Portland with 31 points.

Milwaukee, which established the previous record of 20 straight victories last season en route to the league title, was paced by Oscar Robertson's 29 points. Kareem Jabbar, the defending scoring champion and current leader, chipped in with 25 points for the Bucks.

Phoenix, beating New York for the first time in nine attempts at Madison Square Garden, got 24 points from Neal Walk, 23 from Dennis Layton and 21 apiece from Connie Hawkins and Dick Van Arsdale. Dick Barnett topped the Knicks with 25 points and Walt Frazier had 24, 19 in the final period.

Dick Selma of the Philadelphia Phillies struck out 153 National League batters in 134 innings in 1970.

Area Cagers Face Curtailed Slate

It will be a curtailed slate for all three county schools this week with each one going to the boards on Friday and getting the day off Saturday.

Teays Valley 1-4, will be at home with Olentangy, Westfall, 2-4, will host East Clinton and Logan Elm, 2-4, will travel to Piketon.

Coach Bob Hoover and his Vikings will endeavor to get back on the winning trail after losing four straight games. They ripped Miami Trace in the season opener but haven't been able to get back into the swing of things again.

Olentangy has shown some real scoring punch in several contests and the Vikings will have to go all out if they are going to get onto the winning side of the Metropolitan ledger.

DISCIPLINARY action at Westfall resulted in Bruce Beatty and Alan Christopher being dropped from the squad and Coach Jeff Bigam and his Mustangs have been working hard all week in an effort to come up with a set lineup.

They will be going up against a good East Clinton team who has been able to put points on the board this year.

The Astros are a small club with good speed and rely on 6-foot-2 Joe Davis to get the rebounding job done for them.

It seems Coach Chuck Pritchard and his Logan Elm Braves are off and running after dropping their first four games.

The Redmen broke into the winning column with a victory over a tough Adena five and then took the Teays Valley Vikings into camp last week.

They will be out to make it three in a row Friday night against the Red Streaks of Piketon who sport a 1-4 record for the season.

Football coach Jim Owens is in his 15th season at the University of Washington.

Cincinnati Tops BGSU, Wins 83-72

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS "The difference was in their quickness," Bowling Green Basketball Coach Pat Haley said after his Falcons were victimized by Cincinnati 83-72 Tuesday night.

"Everything we tried to do they took away from us," Haley lamented.

Cincinnati jumped off to a 13-2 lead in the first five minutes of play. But Bowling Green got hot and closed to within two points, 26-24, before the Bearcats outscored their hosts 12-3 for a 38-27 halftime advantage.

"I think they were just awed by us at the beginning of the game," reflected Cincinnati Coach Tay Baker.

"But once they found out we were just as human as they were and that they could stick in there with us, they started to play hard."

Leading the Bearcats to their third win in as many games was Lloyd Batts with 21 points. Tammie Derrek Dickey added 10.

The Falcons (1-3) were paced by Dalynn Badenhop with 20 points.

In another game on an abbreviated college basketball schedule Tuesday night, unbeaten Urbana posted its eighth win of the season by defeating Malone 112-101 in a Mid-Ohio Conference clash of powerful offenses.

The Blue Knights' Mark Todd netted a game-high 31 points, while John Plunkett added 28 and Terry Anderson 20. The win improved Urbana's league mark to 4-0.

Pacing Malone (0-3) were Bill Marzich with 25 points and Jerry Townsend with 20.

Kenyon recorded its first win of the season at the expense of Wilmington 67-66. Forward Mike White swished the winning basket with 20 seconds left to play.

Robinson Sees Trade By Bengals

CINCINNATI (AP) — Running back Paul Robinson, who has apparently lost his starting job with the Cincinnati Bengals, feels he may be traded by the National Football League club although he will start Sunday against the New York Jets.

Robinson, from the University of Arizona, was rookie of the year in 1968 after he ran for 1,023 yards, the first rookie ever to run more than 1,000 yards in professional football. His average was 4.3 yards per carry.

Robinson has been benched, except for kickoff returns, since mid-season when Coach Paul Brown went with rookie Dave Willis from Boston College.

"I just sort of have the feeling I'll be traded," said Robinson, who has only 44 carries for 196 yards this year. Willis has been backed up by running back Essex Johnson, who has run for six touchdowns.

"I really don't want to think about it now," he said. "I want to play it cool and I don't want to do anything to upset the team for this last game."

Robinson said he was upset earlier about not playing and had a talk with Brown. He started the next game but played only the first quarter against Houston.

"Well, I'll have another talk with him after the season, and maybe something will happen after that. I don't know, but I guess the thought of being traded has crossed my mind all right," he said.

Circleville School Building Completion Date Extended

A request from the contractor on the school building program to extend the completion date 60 days to Mar. 31, 1972 was granted Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the Circleville Board of Education.

The request came because of a work slowdown created by the late shipment of doorways for the new additions at Nicholas Drive and the high school.

Members also approved purchase of television hook-up equipment for the new rooms at an expense of $376 and public announcement equipment to be joined with the present system in both schools for an additional $1425.

A contract was offered to Mrs. Sara Corder to teach elementary instrumental and vocal music. Mrs. Corder holds a BM degree from Ohio State University. She will replace Mrs. Iles at the end of the first semester.

A REPLACEMENT is being sought for Mrs. Linda Miller, third grade teacher at Nicholas Drive, who is terminating her position for additional home duties.

Added to the substitute lists were: Liston Hally Jr. and Mrs. Carol T. Farley as teaching staff; George Williams and Robert Goff as custodial help during the December and the holiday vacation.

Mention was made of teachers attending professional meetings. Mary Lee Stevens, William Brook, Charles Clarke and Deborah Ruehling were all representatives of the Circleville Schools at the OEA Convention Dec. 1, 2 and 3 in Columbus. Richard Fisher and Doris Gillespie attended the College Entrance Examination Board Workshop Dec. 9 at Lancaster.

Clifford Kerns submitted a request to attend the Feb. 3 and 4 Ohio Music Education Convention in Columbus.

Two extracurricular club advisers were employed for two new clubs. Winifred Breegle will head the Junior High Latin Club recently organized and Mrs. Betty Ricky will lead the Future Homemakers of America which has been operating on a trial basis at the high school.

A new wet-dry vacuum and accessories were authorized for purchase from Raedal Hardware in Lancaster for a total cost of $288.40. The machine is to replace an antiquated model at Atwater.

A release was ordered to be sent to Wilmington Schools to enable a senior boy whose parents had just moved to Circleville to continue his schooling at Wilmington and participate in sports as a tuition student at his parents' expense.

THE amounts and rates submitted by the Budget Commission for 1972 were accepted. These rates are 25.6 mills for operation and 4.9 mills for bond retirement.

A bid from Carl Tracy to install shelving in the Circleville High School Library was approved, and a new mimeograph machine purchased for the junior high.

After deliberation, board members voted to accept an addendum to the existing building rental policy allowing building use by commercial enterprises involved in training of an educational nature, considered on its individual merit, providing all other conditions of policy are met. Furnace repair was authorized at the junior high.

Before closing the meeting, Superintendent Fritz Jacobs offered retiring board member R. L. (Bud) Brenner Jr. best wishes. Jacobs noted, "The school district and community could not thank you enough, Bud, for your 20 years of service on the school board ... and I think you know how all the rest of the board feels."

While the "Goodbye old friends" discussion was going on, Jacobs placed a call to the superintendent of Chillicothe Schools to find out how the election results were tallying for the joint vocational operating levy. Announcement that the issue had passed with approximately a 100 vote margin caused an uproar in the superintendent's office, and finally Brenner's shout that "that was the finest present I could have had as a good-bye gift."

Drive-In Theater Barriers Ordered

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston City Council approved an ordinance Monday requiring that all drive-in movie theaters set up barriers to prevent persons outside the theater grounds from being able to see the picture screen.

Sponsors of the resolution said it would keep the public from having to observe possibly objectionable scenes and would reduce distractions to passing motorists.

Trucker Is Killed

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Elwin Taylor of Shaker Heights, Ohio, was killed Tuesday when he tried to jump clear of his tractor-trailer rig as it went out of control on icy I-90 west of here and crashed down an embankment.

manager of the MDWS, also said Tuesday that he wouldn't answer any of the charges—including one that there was no safety monitoring device working in the tunnel on the day of the explosion—at this time. "I don't know if they're true or not at this stage of the game. I'm going to wait until the experts have finished looking at it."

A 20-man team is investigating the explosion and its findings might be made public Thursday, he said.

There has been confusion about the team, Remus said. "The governor didn't appoint them. They appointed themselves at the meeting Sunday. When the governor got here, he said it was a good idea and that that's what he'd have done if we hadn't."

The unit has been down in the tunnel twice, for 10 hours Monday and six hours Tuesday, he said. "They want to hold a meeting before having a press conference," Remus added.

Several theories have been advanced about the explosion Saturday in the six-mile-long water-purification tunnel.

"One is that when another contractor, drilling a ventilation shaft down into the tunnel which runs for five miles under Lake Huron, broke through a pocket of methane gas seeped in, filled the tunnel and eventually exploded.

Along with the theories have come charges of "lax" and "haphazard" operating conditions at the tunnel from former safety inspector Bennie Ness.

The House, today, is to receive two bills to redistrict the state's congressional districts. They will come from Republicans and Democrats.

Although Republicans control the legislature and can pass their own plan, they do not have the votes to override a gubernatorial veto.

Minority Leader A. G. Lacione, D-30 Bellaire, said he hopes a compromise can be worked out between the two plans in legislative committee.

Republicans now control the congressional delegation 17-7. Ohio will lose one of its 24 seats next year because of national population shifts noted by the 1970 census.

The GOP plan, sources said, would keep the 17 GOP seats safe and set the stage for the loss of one Democratic seat.

The Democratic plan reportedly would assure Democrats of seven seats and give them a chance at four to six others.

Circleville School Building Completion Date Extended

A request from the contractor on the school building program to extend the completion date 60 days to Mar. 31, 1972 was granted Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the Circleville Board of Education.

The request came because of a work slowdown created by the late shipment of doorways for the new additions at Nicholas Drive and the high school.

Members also approved purchase of television hook-up equipment for the new rooms at an expense of $576 and public announcement equipment to be joined with the present system in both schools for an additional $1425.

A contract was offered to Mrs. Sara Corder to teach elementary instrumental and vocal music. Mrs. Corder holds a BM degree from Ohio State University. She will replace Mrs. Iles at the end of the first semester.

A REPLACEMENT is being sought for Mrs. Linda Miller, third grade teacher at Nicholas Drive, who is terminating her position for additional home duties.

Added to the substitute lists were: Liston Hally Jr. and Mrs. Carol T. Farley as teaching staff; George Williams and Robert Goff as custodial help during the December and the holiday vacation.

Mention was made of teachers attending professional meetings. Mary Lee Stevens, William Brook, Charles Clarke and Deborah Ruehling were all representatives of the Circleville Schools at the OEA Convention Dec. 1, 2 and 3 in Columbus. Richard Fisher and Doris Gillespie attended the College Entrance Examination Board Workshop Dec. 9 at Lancaster. Clifford Kerns submitted a request to attend the Feb. 3 and 4 Ohio Music Education Convention in Columbus.

Two extracurricular club advisers were employed for two new clubs. Winifred Breegle will head the Junior High Latin Club recently organized and Mrs. Betty Ricky will lead the Future Homemakers of America which has been operating on a trial basis at the high school.
